BURSARIES*

The IFTF support creativity, employment & the preservation of traditional craft techniques across the globe.

To deepen our involvement at a grassroots level we can now offer bursaries of up to €1000* to those working with fur.

The first step is to join our community FUR FUTURES supporting the next generation working with fur.

We encourage anyone who works with fur and would like access to the benefits that go with being a member of Fur Futures to join us today.

You may be a designer interested in using fur in your collections, a blogger who loves keeping up with the latest fur styles, or a fur farmer or trader looking to meet new people within the trade.

*Maximum value of bursary.
The value of IFTF bursaries awarded is up to the discretion of IFTF Fur Futures committee
